

AUTHORIZED TO APPEAL

Bank Receiver Can Go to Supreme Court.

DEFENDANTS GET COSTS

Judge Ingram Decees That Messrs. Milstead, Curtis and Barnes and Dr. Jackson Shall be Refunded Defense Expenses.

After hearing argument of counsel for both sides, Judge John H. Ingram, of the Law and Chancery Court of Richmond, sitting for Judge Barham in the Corporation Court, yesterday entered a decree allowing Allan D. Jones, receiver for the defunct Savings Bank of Newport News, to appeal to the Supreme Court of Virginia for a writ of error on Judge Ingram's decision holding Dr. Carter Perkins, Dr. Clarence Porter Jones, A. T. Pulliam and L. C. Bristow responsible to the depositors of the wrecked bank for the full amount of the losses of the depositors.

The decree allows the receiver to employ counsel to appeal the case against four of the defendants in the original suit, City Treasurer J. M. Curtis, Former Sergeant E. W. Milstead, Dr. Noah Jackson, of Norfolk, and L. F. Barnes, of Richmond. Captain Charles C. Berkeley, of this city, and Hon. A. Caperton Braxton, of Richmond, counsel for the depositors, in all probability will be retained by the receiver to appeal the case. Should the Supreme Court grant the writ, the evidence and briefs in the case will be presented to that court and the attorneys for the defendants and appellants will argue the case before the court.

Murt Pay Defendants' Costs.
In his decree, Judge Ingram orders the receiver to first pay to the exonerated defendants in the first suit—Curtis, Milstead, Jackson and Barnes—their costs expended in defending themselves against the action brought by the depositors. This money will be taken out of the funds now held by the receiver and the cost of the appeal will be defrayed out of the same funds.

Judge Ingram arrived in this city from Richmond yesterday morning and convened the Corporation Court about noon. Captain Berkeley appeared as counsel for the receiver and depositors and opened the argument, explaining the reasons for the request for the motion to allow the receiver to appeal. Attorney O. D. Batchelor, counsel for City Treasurer J. M. Curtis, argued against the granting of the motion. As Captain Berkeley started to reply, Judge Ingram announced that he had decided to grant the appeal and that further argument was unnecessary.

Depositors Are Jubilant.
When the news that Judge Ingram had decided to grant the appeal became known, the several hundred depositors of the wrecked institutions

I am glad to say that the cure has practically been permanent. On one occasion since then, Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Klor's drug store and their use was followed by prompt benefit. were naturally very jubilant and they are hopeful of success in the Court of Appeals. When President Irwin Tucker wrecked the bank in May, 1906, the depositors had in the institution something like $45,000. They have recovered a small part of their money back from such funds as the receiver for the bank has collected from outstanding notes.

MISS FALCONER WEDS CHARLES E. McCALLUM

Popular Young Lady the Bride of U. S. Cable Steamer Engineer— Reception.

Miss Margaret Falconer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Falconer, and Mr. Charles Eugene McCallum, of New York, were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride, 124 Thirty-fourth street. Rev. Joseph Frioli, rector of St. Vincent's Catholic church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The bride entered the parlor with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a traveling suit of light wistaria, with hat and gloves to correspond and carried brides roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Julia Falconer, who wore a handsome costume of old gold and carried a bouquet of enchantress carnations. Mr. J. H. Wheeler attended the groom as best man.

The house decorations were in green and white, the entire lower floor being canvassed in white, and palms, ferns and cut flowers being used in the decoration.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum left on the evening train for Richmond to proceed to the North, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after June 1 in New York city.

Among the guests attending the wedding were: Rev. Thomas C. Darst, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lindgren, Miss Mabel Lindgren, Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Ford, Mr. L. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves and daughters, Misses Hannah and Margaret, of this city; Miss Ella McCallum, of New York, and E. L. Bennett, of Washington.

Mrs. J. H. Graves, sister of Miss Falconer, tendered a reception to the bridal party Wednesday evening at her home 217 Thirty-fifth street. The house was tastefully decorated in white and green, the color scheme being carried out with palms, ferns and cut flowers. A dainty supper was served. One of the pretty features of the evening was the cutting of the wedding cake.

Miss Falconer has lived in this city for the past eight years and is popular with a host of friends. She is a member of the choir of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mr. McCallum is the chief engineer of the United States cable steamer Joseph Henry.

READY FOR THE PRIMARY

Democratic Committee Makes Final Arrangements.

JUDGES AND CLERKS NAMED

Question As to Provision of Plan Requiring Voter to Vote for Two Candidates For Common Council and One for Board of Aldermen.

Final arrangements for the Democratic municipal primary which is to be held on Saturday, May 7, were made last night by the city Democratic executive committee at a meeting in the Circuit Court room at the city hall. Judges and clerks for the primary were named as follows:
First ward—Judges—J. T. Marston and J. E. McMullan. Clerk—T. A. Fowler.

Second ward—Judges—G. I. A. Fox and W. D. Strallman. Clerk—G. A. Parrish.

Third ward—Judges—L. S. Davis and W. H. Talley. Clerk—J. H. Read.

Fourth ward—Judges—Fred Shawen and W. E. Barrett. Clerk—H. F. Plummer.

Wording of Plan Questioned.
Some of the committeemen from the Second and Third wards raised objection to the amendment recently adopted to the plan for the primary which sets forth that he voters "shall vote for two members of the common council and one member of the board of aldermen from each ward." It was claimed by some that if a voter scratched all except one candidate for the common council the judges of the committee took an opposite view, saying that it would not be necessary for the judges to throw the ballot out.

No action was taken on this matter, as Chairman Newman ruled that the plan could not be changed because the candidates had paid their entrance fees under the present plan.

Two Sabbath Incidents.—Matt xii: 1-14.

Golden Text.—I will have mercy and not sacrifice. Matt xii: 7.

Verses 1, 2.—Why is it either right or wrong to walk or drive, for pleasure, on the Sabbath day?

Was there any Jewish law which would justify the disciples in plucking the ears of another man's wheat on the Sabbath day? (See Deut. xxiii: 25.)

See Ex. xx: 10, and say whether the law for the Sabbath there given, forbids, absolutely, all manner of work or whether under it, works of necessity and of mercy would be allowable?

How do you account for the fact that the Pharisees, the religious teachers of that day, had such narrow views of the Sabbath and were so critical with Jesus?

If Jesus were to come to this country incognito, and preach and teach in our towns and cities, without any church authority, how would he be received by the clergy and the churches? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 3-6.—What defence did Jesus make when they accused him of allowing his disciples to break the Sabbath?

Look up I Sam. xxi: 1, 6; also Lev. xxiv: 3-9, and say what bearing this reference of Jesus has upon the case in dispute?

What reason is there to believe that God never intended the Sabbath to be kept in such a narrow way, as the Pharisees in those days taught? (See Mark II: 23 to III: 6.)

Give an example of how it is possible to keep the letter of the Sabbath law and violate its spirit, and to break the letter and preserve its spirit?

and had not anticipated any change in it.

Interest in Campaign.
Interest in the campaign is growing apace and all of the candidates for the nomination to the council and board of aldermen are making a quiet, though hard fight. Some close contests are expected in every ward, while some are claiming that there will be some surprises in one or two of the wards. An interesting race is looked for in the First ward between M. H. Lash and J. E. Wilkins for the board of aldermen. Both candidates seem confident of victory and each is making a hard fight.
